MERRY CHRISTMAS AND WELCOME TO ST. JAMES' EPISCOPAL CHURCH!

Children change us. The presence of an infant child transforms us from autonomous adults, going about our daily lives, into mothers and fathers, grandparents and god-parents, aunts and uncles. We become a new person in the presence of a child whose mere existence asks for our care and nurture. We discover our infinite capacity to love another being when we realize that there is nothing we wouldn't do for the child who has claimed our heart.

It is no wonder, then, that God chose to come into the world as an infant child. God could have arrived as a powerful authority demanding our respect and allegiance. God could have overwhelmed us with strength and we would have bowed our obedience in the fear of the Lord. Instead, God takes on human flesh as an infant baby, helpless and dependent, and we gather around his manger crib willing to be transformed by the presence of the Christ.

As you gather here today at St. James' Episcopal Church, we hope you feel the transforming power of the infant Jesus who changes us from autonomous adults into one human family of brothers and sisters in Christ. We hope that your heart is touched by worshipping together this night and you know intimately the power of God's love for you.

If you are searching for a faith home or you desire to know more about the love of Christ and the ways that it can transform your life—join us at St. James' and meet other Christians who are on the same journey. We are all discovering the ways that God's love and our love for God and one another can transform us and the world around us. It all begins with an infant child, and this child, Jesus, will lead the way.

The Reverend W. Earl Mullins
Interim Rector

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, O God, Creator of heaven and earth. Because, in the incarnation of the Word made flesh in Christ Jesus, a new light has dawned upon the world; you have become one of us that we might become one with you in your glorious reign. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS - S-125

Sung by all.

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please stand as the Celebrant continues.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

People We remember his death,
 We proclaim his resurrection,
 We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Mary and Joseph and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, O God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

ST. JAMES' COVID-19 GUIDELINES

Recently, the CDC updated its guidance based on their study of the highly contagious Delta variant of COVID-19. According to the updated guidance, even those who are fully vaccinated are advised to wear masks when attending public indoor gatherings in counties with "substantial" or "high" coronavirus transmission rates. Since Loudoun County, in which most of our worshipping community lives, falls into the "substantial" transmission rate category — and as requested by Bishop Susan Goff, of the Diocese of Virginia — we have modified our mask requirements for indoor worship.

Effective August 1, the following is the St. James' COVID-19 protocol:

In order to continue moving around the Nave to exchange the Peace, we ask that all worshippers wear masks indoors, regardless of their vaccination status. The readers and the preacher will remove their masks when speaking and while being distanced, but masks will be worn while distributing communion. Dr. Cooksey may be unmasked while at the organ or piano.

There will be no Coffee/Lemonade Hour for the time being, however the parishioners are welcome to gather informally in small groups, while wearing masks, if indoors, and exercising common sense in terms of distancing.

The 10:00 Worship Service will continue to be livestreamed on the St. James' Facebook Page and the St. James' YouTube Channel simultaneously. The service bulletins are available on the church website, at www.stjamesleesburg.org, under Worship > St. James' Livestreaming.

Thank you for your continued flexibility as we strive to “love all our neighbors” in this way.

ADULT INQUIRERS: THE UNIQUENESS OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH
