1. PURPOSE & AUTHORITY ACKNOWLEDGED

The purpose of this document is to codify the procedures and organizational framework for the Parish of St. James' Episcopal Church in Leesburg, Virginia, which accedes to the doctrine, discipline and worship and the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia and General Convention and is bound to them as adopted.

2. MEMBERSHIP

Any person shall be considered a Member of the Parish who:

- Is baptized with the baptism duly recorded in this Church (Canon 17.I-A)
- Is sixteen or more years of age
- Declares an intention to support the Parish by regular attendance at public worship and by financial support.

3. VESTRY

The Vestry is comprised of the Rector, Officers, and Elected Members.

3.1 Officers

The officers of the Parish are

- Rector
- Senior Warden
- Junior Warden
- Treasurer

- Registrar

The Wardens, the Treasurer and the Registrar are selected by the Rector and presented to the Vestry annually for up to three years.

3.2 Elected Members of the Vestry

- Twelve members of the vestry are elected by the Congregation. They are each elected for three-year terms, in classes of four. Every year, a class of four rotates off, to be replaced by a new class of four persons.
- No Vestry member may serve more than one consecutive three-year term, but under exceptional circumstances, service may be extended for up to six months.
- No two members of the same household or immediate family members may serve on the Vestry with voting rights at the same time.
- All confirmed Members who are Communicants in Good Standing are eligible for election to the Vestry. Communicants in Good Standing is defined in the Canons as all communicants of this Church who for the previous year have been faithful in corporate worship unless for good cause prevented, and have been faithful in working, praying and giving for the spread of the kingdom of God.

4.0 DELEGATES

- The Vestry shall elect annually by 1 April the number of Lay Delegates to the Annual Convention as permitted by the membership records submitted in the Parochial Report.
- Lay Delegates will be adult Communicants in Good Standing.
- The Rector and/or Wardens will certify to the Secretary of the Diocese on forms provided no later than 15 April.
- Each Delegate shall be provided with one copy of the certification.
- The Lay Delegate(s) is/are authorized to vote
- The Lay Delegate(s) elected to the Convention shall also serve as the Church's Delegates to the Regional Council.

5.0. NOMINATIONS, ELECTION, ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF THE VESTRY

5.1 Nominations

- There shall be a Nominating Committee consisting of the Rector, the outgoing Vestry members, and members of the Parish appointed at the discretion of the Rector.
- The Nominating Committee will present the list of candidates at the Annual Meeting
- The biographies of the nominees will be posted with the notice of the Annual Meeting
- Nominations may be made from the floor by communicants in good standing at the Annual Meeting provided the nominee has given their consent in advance to have their name placed in nomination.

5.2 Elections

- The election of Vestry members will be held yearly at the Annual Meeting at such time and place as designated by the Vestry, normally in April. The Rector shall preside. If there is no Rector and/or special circumstances do not allow the Rector to attend, the Senior Warden shall preside.
- All Members who are registered in the Parish, are eligible to vote. Confirmation is not a requirement to vote at a congregational meeting.
- Voting will be by secret ballot in person and/or via electronic voting at the discretion of the Rector based on special circumstances. Proxies are not permitted. No election shall be valid unless those participating are qualified and number at least ten percent of adult communicants in good standing.
- Outgoing Vestry members will continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

5.3 Organization of the Vestry

- The Rector and Wardens or their designees shall present an orientation to the new Vestry members. The orientation shall include, but not be limited to:
 - Vestry duties, expectations and responsibilities.
 - Duties and responsibilities of the Trustees.

- Summary in collaboration with the Finance Committee of the Church's financials and investments.
- An overview of Property capital projects
- Each new Vestry member shall qualify by subscribing to the declaration found in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Virginia.
- Each new Vestry member shall complete required Diocese training within 60 days of election to the Vestry, and provide proof of completion to the Registrar and the Rector
- The Rector will preside at all meetings of the Vestry.
 - In the Rector's absence the Senior Warden will preside.
 - The Rector and Elected members of the Vestry will be voting members. The officers will have a voice on the Vestry but not have a vote.
 - Assistants to the Rector may attend, but will not have a vote.

5.4 Operations

- Vestry Retreat
 - Following the election and installation of the new Vestry, the Vestry may schedule and hold a retreat at a location to be determined by the Rector and Wardens with agreement from the Vestry.
 - The agenda for the retreat shall be established by the Rector in consultation with the Wardens with input from Vestry members.
- Vestry Vacancies:
 - In the event of a vacancy, the individual receiving the next highest number of votes in the most recent annual Vestry election would be offered the opportunity to serve the unexpired term of the departing Vestry member, and appointed if accepted. If this person does not accept, then the remaining candidates would be invited, in descending order of vote totals.

- Vestry Meetings
 - The Vestry will meet monthly and/or as needed at a date and time determined by each Vestry.
 - Exceptional circumstances may require additional meetings.
 - The Rector and Wardens shall establish the agenda and provide to Vestry members as feasible a few days prior to the scheduled meeting, the agenda, minutes of the previous Vestry meeting and any ancillary documentation to be discussed at the meeting. It is the expectation that Vestry members will review documentation prior to the Vestry meeting at which the documentation will be discussed.
 - Vestry meetings are open to the congregation, unless a portion and/or the entire meeting is declared in executive session.

6. DUTIES OF VESTRIES, WARDENS, OFFICERS, TRUSTEES, & STANDING COMMITTEES

6.1 Vestries Shall
